

Creating Direct Links to GALILEO Journals

1. Locate the Journal you want to create a link to by selecting "Journals A-Z" or "Magazines A-Z."
2. Browse for your journal by letter, or search by keyword or title.

The screenshot shows the GALILEO Scholar interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the GALILEO Scholar logo and links for Home, About GALILEO, Contact Us, and Help. Below the navigation bar, there is a yellow banner with the text "Georgia's Virtual Library...bringing quality content to you!". The main content area is divided into several sections. On the left, there is a sidebar with "Find Journals" and "Find Cited Article" options. The main content area is titled "Find Journals" and features a search input field with the text "Consumer Reports" and a "Find Journal" button. Above the search input field, there is a navigation bar with tabs for "Browse by Subject", "Browse by Type", "Databases A-Z", "Journals A-Z", and "Search". The "Journals A-Z" tab is selected, and a red arrow points to it. Below the search input field, there is a list of search results, including "Consumer Reports" and "Consumer Reports on Health". A red arrow points to the search input field. To the right of the search results, there is a "Tips!" section with a list of instructions.

2. Click on the link to the journal from the result screen.

3. Click on "Save Persistent URL or Citation" from the Find It @ GALILEO menu.

Note: The URLs that are created using the "Save persistent URL" function are institution-specific. Make sure you are logged in to GALILEO as the correct institution before capturing URLs. In Addition, the URLs are really long. Some systems, such as online courses, may have a character limit for URLs. You can shorten the URL by using the online site Tiny URL : <http://www.tiny.cc/>.
