

Mirabeau Bonaparte Lamar established the Columbus Enquirer as a weekly newspaper in May of 1828, making it the third oldest newspaper in Georgia. The paper began publishing on a daily basis in 1859. In 1874, the Enquirer merged with its largest local competitor, the Columbus Sun, and became the Columbus Enquirer-Sun. The Columbus Enquirer Archive spans the years 1828-1890 and includes over 32,000 images.

GEORGIA
HISTORIC NEWSPAPERS: Columbus Enquirer

Home About Help

Welcome to the Columbus Enquirer Archive

Search

Search newspapers for return pages with any of these words

Don't show results with

Terms must be within words of each other

Limit by year

Search Tips

Browse

Read issues by year

The Columbus Enquirer has been published under many titles. Listed below are those included in this online presentation.

Weekly

- * 1830-1861: Columbus Enquirer
- * 1861-1873: Weekly Columbus Enquirer
- * 1874: Sun and Columbus Weekly Enquirer

Daily

- * 1865-1873: Daily Columbus Enquirer
- * 1874: Daily Columbus Enquirer
- * 1874: Sun and Columbus Daily Enquirer
- * 1874-1877: Columbus Daily Enquirer
- * 1877-1886: Columbus Daily Enquirer-Sun
- * 1886-1890: Columbus Enquirer-Sun

Tri-Weekly

- * 1862: Columbus Enquirer Tri-Weekly

GALILEO Express Link:

<http://www.galileo.usg.edu/express?link=cole>

DLG URL:

<http://dlg.galileo.usg.edu/enquirer>

