GPO's Federal Digital System (FDsys) allows GPO to manage information from all three branches of the government in digital form. It replaces the functionality and enhances searching and browsing capabilities currently available in GPO Access.

Content consists of scanned print publications, information from websites of federal agencies, and files submitted by Congress and federal agencies. Collections currently available for search include:

- Congressional Bills
- Congressional Documents
- Congressional Hearings
- Congressional Record
- Congressional Reports
- Federal Register
- Public and Private Laws
- Compilation of Presidential Documents

The screenshot shows the FDsys search interface. At the top, it says 'U.S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE | Keeping America Informed'. Below that are navigation links for 'Home', 'Customers', 'Vendors', and 'Libraries'. The main content area is titled 'SEARCH RESULTS' and shows a search for 'recovery and reinvestment act 2009'. It lists four search results, each with a title, date, and a link to 'More Information'. The first result is '74 FR 14636 - Federal Acquisition Regulation, FAR Case 2009-010, American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009...'.
