How do I get my current GALILEO password?

To use premium GALILEO databases away from your school or library, you need a GALILEO password. Which of these best describes you?

Georgia Citizen

To get your GALILEO password, contact your local public library. A directory of Georgia Public Libraries is available at: <http://www.georgialibraries.org/public/findlibrary.html>

Public College or University Student

You can find your GALILEO password through your college or university's GIL catalog. Use the menu of GIL catalogs on the GALILEO password entry screen to link to your GIL account.

Participating Private College or University Student

To get your GALILEO password, contact your college or university library.

Technical College Student

To get your GALILEO password, contact your technical college library. A directory of Georgia Technical Colleges is available at <http://www.dtae.org/teched/colleges>.

K-12 School Student

To get your GALILEO password, ask a teacher or visit your school media center.

Guest

Users outside Georgia may access some GALILEO databases, including the Digital Library of Georgia databases, the New Georgia Encyclopedia, and other non-password protected resources. Visit GALILEO at <http://www.galileo.usg.edu> and log in as a guest to access these databases.

For more information, see the GALILEO Access Policies and Information page at: <http://www.usg.edu/galileo/about/policies/accesspol.phtml>
