The University System of Georgia (USG) is committed to the highest ethical and professional standards of conduct in pursuit of its mission to create a more educated Georgia. This mission demands integrity, good judgment and dedication to public service from all members of the USG Community. USG employees have an affirmative duty to report wrongdoing in a timely manner and to refrain from retaliating against those who report violations or assist with authorized investigations.

The USG’s Ethics Policy includes a Statement of Core Values and a Code of Conduct. The USG’s Ethics Policy is provided in the Board of Regents Policy Manual section 8.2.20. It may be accessed from the following link: http://www.usg.edu/audit/compliance/ethics.

In signing your name below, you are stating that you have reviewed the USG’s Ethics Policy and agree to abide by it.

________________________________________  ________________________________________
Signature                                      Date

________________________________________  ________________________________________
Print your name                                Employee ID number