

THE ALBANY JOURNAL SINCE 1939

Southwest Georgia's Local Online Newspaper

Albany Early College students were honored for their academic performance during a ceremony held Tuesday evening, May 17, in the L. Orene Hall Building at Albany State University. During the ceremony, Vincia Todd (third from left) received the Christine Blaylock Award, the top honor presented to a student in the Albany Early College. Joining Todd are (from left) Zeporia Bass, Leonard McCrary, Vivian Hunt, Crystal Clemons and Nayonda Gibson. Looking on from the podium is Barbara Harvey, coordinator of Albany Early College.

Albany Early College students recognized during the annual awards program on Tuesday, May 17, gather for a photo in front of the L. Orene Hall Building at Albany State University.