Recommendation for Specific Learning Outcomes for Introduction to Psychology
Academic Advisory Committee on Psychology
10 August 2005

A student who successfully completes the Introduction to Psychology (PSYC 1101) will be able to ……
I. …demonstrate knowledge of 6 major perspectives in Psychology (Behavioral, Biological, Cognitive, Positive/Humanistic, Social, & Psychodynamic) by….
   A. …identifying key figures
   B. …identifying key concepts
   C. …identifying major theories
   D. …identifying applications of major perspectives to everyday living
II. …demonstrate knowledge of the scientific process in Psychology by….
   A. …identifying the basic steps of the scientific method
   B. …identifying the following research methods
      1. experiment
      2. correlation
      3. data collection methods
III. …identify applications of the 6 major perspectives to…
   A. …development
   B. …personality
   C. …mental health
   D. …learning

Submitted to the committee for corrections by Karen Hambright on 21 June 2005.

Committee approved draft and Hambright forwarded to Board of Regents liaisons on 10 August 2005.