

Universal Availability Notice for the University System of Georgia 403(b) Plan

The University System of Georgia provides you with the opportunity to save for your retirement through the USG 403(b) Plan (the “plan”).

Whether you want to enroll in the plan or you are already enrolled but wish to change the amount of your contribution, you can accomplish this goal by logging in to OneUSG connect at OneUSGConnect.edu under the Active USG Employees section. Information on the plan can be obtained from your local Human Resources/Benefits Department or you can visit retirement.usg.edu.

Eligibility:

- All full-time, part-time and temporary employees, with the exception of student workers, who receive compensation reportable on an IRS Form W-2 are eligible to participate in the plan at any time during their employment.
- Please take a moment to review the plan brochure or website before enrolling.
- Once you are enrolled, you can review and change the amount of your contributions and your retirement plan vendor allocations at any time.
- The exact date your investment allocations will take effect may vary depending upon the policies of the financial service firm providing the investment options you choose.

Contribution Limit:

- The IRS limits the amount you may defer (under this and other plans) in any tax year.
- For 2020, the limit under all plans of this type is (generally) $19,500. Employees that are age 50 or older may contribute an additional $6,500.
- Each enrolled participant is capped at $19,500 for the tax year for contributions to all 403(b) plans.
- This includes any other employers with a 403(b) plan in which you participate.
- You are responsible for tracking and reporting to the IRS the amount of your contributions to any 403(b) plans in which you participate.
- For further details or if you have questions, please contact your Human Resources Office.

You may elect to contribute to either the 403(b) or 457(b) plan or both for additional retirement savings.
