Garnishment of Pay

Policy Statement
The University System considers the acceptance and settlement of just and honest debts to be a mark of personal responsibility. Each institution shall establish procedures to counsel with employees whose failures to meet their personal financial obligations causes discredit to the institution. (See BOR Policy Manual regarding Garnishment of Pay Policy)

This policy ensures that employees are informed of the expectation that they will manage their financial obligations in a manner that does not bring discredit to an institution of the University System and ensures that institutions will respond appropriately when notified of employee garnishments.

Applicability
All units of the University System of Georgia are covered by this policy.

Who Should Read This Policy
All employees within the University System of Georgia should be aware of this policy.

- None

Process and Procedures
To address garnishment of pay and the responsibilities of our campuses and employees.
Each institution shall establish procedures to counsel with employees whose failures to meet their personal financial obligations cause discredit to the institution. Repeated instances of default in payment by employees of the University System, after appropriate counseling, shall be considered sufficient grounds to terminate for cause.
