2021 HEALTHCARE PLAN
Associate Vice Chancellor of Total Rewards Karin Elliott reviewed the performance of the University System of Georgia (USG) healthcare plan compared to national trends. In 2019, the USG experienced a 1.9% increase in annual claims cost per covered employee, compared to a 5.7% average national increase. The USG anticipates an increase in claims costs in 2020 due to treatment of COVID-19 and a decrease in costs due to the delay or omission of care that would have occurred under routine circumstances. Associate Vice Chancellor Elliott thanked the members of the Total Rewards Steering Committee for their work in reviewing the USG’s benefits programs, healthcare data, and programming.

Associate Vice Chancellor Elliott then gave an overview of the proposed 2021 healthcare plan, premiums, and recommended employer contribution for 65+ Medicare-eligible retirees. There were no recommended plan design changes, a slight increase in premiums for employees at the family tier, and no changes to the 65+ Medicare-eligible retiree employer contribution. She announced that the USG recently completed a successful procurement for a third party administrator for its self-insured healthcare plans and selected Anthem as the vendor. The USG has also partnered with Accolade to provide care management and navigation services that will assist employees with healthcare questions and improve their interactions with the healthcare system.

With motion made and properly seconded, the Regents present unanimously approved the health plans and premiums as presented.

FISCAL YEAR 2022 CAPITAL BUDGET REQUEST
Vice Chancellor for Real Estate & Facilities Sandra Neuse presented the Fiscal Year (FY) 2022 Capital Budget Request of $276.85 million for the USG and its pass-through institutions.

With motion made and variously seconded, the Regents present unanimously approved the FY 2022 Capital Budget Request as presented.
NEW ONLINE DELIVERY MODEL
Executive Vice Chancellor and Chief Academic Officer Tristan Denley gave a presentation about the proposed eDegree, a new online degree model that will expand educational opportunities for adult learners in Georgia. The eDegree model will be available to all USG institutions and will offer credit for prior learning, including transfer credits and applicable life and work experience. The program will have a single, all-inclusive pricing model per credit hour and all education and student support services will be provided remotely through a shared services model. The program’s format and instructional model are a more appropriate fit for busy adult learners and will help the USG serve the large population of online adult learners in the state who enroll at non-USG institutions.

CHANCELLOR’S REPORT
Chancellor Wrigley began his report by welcoming everyone to a fall semester like no other. He thanked the Regents for their hard work and leadership during the past several months. He also thanked USG presidents, faculty, and staff for their willingness to learn about public health protocols, epidemiology, clinical standards, a complex testing landscape, and other new issues related to the pandemic in order to keep our campuses safe. Lastly, the Chancellor thanked University System Office staff members for their tireless work in providing guidance and support to USG campuses as we all adapt to the new normal.

Chancellor Wrigley spoke of the USG’s ongoing efforts to combat the COVID-19 pandemic while still providing a quality education to the students of Georgia. He described the measures that are being taken across the USG to protect students and employees, including the development of institution-specific plans, the implementation of social distancing rules, and the use of face coverings and other personal protective equipment. The Chancellor also emphasized the importance of physical presence on campus to the student experience, and how hybrid or online-only instruction would be detrimental both to students and to the USG.

Chancellor Wrigley then mentioned several highlights from across the University System. The USG awarded 70,879 degrees in FY 2020, the most ever and the largest year-over-year increase since joining the Complete College America initiative in 2011. He welcomed Dr. Brendan Kelly, the new president of the University of West Georgia, and congratulated Dr. David Bridges, the longest-serving president of Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College, who has been in this role for 15 years. The Chancellor also congratulated Georgia State University (GSU) and GSU President Mark Becker, who were awarded a record-breaking $150.2 million in research funding in FY 2020. Funds from these awards will expand teacher residency programs in rural Georgia and apply advanced machine learning in the fight against Alzheimer’s disease, among other projects.

Chancellor Wrigley concluded his remarks with a historical note. On this day in 1918, a ship carrying passengers infected with the new influenza virus arrived in New York City—the city’s first cases of the deadliest pandemic in modern world history. A century later, as we combat a new pandemic using more advanced medicine and technology, the Chancellor reminded everyone to wear a mask, wash their hands, and keep their distance.
