| 2. | Fiscal Year 2021 Tuition | 2 |
| 3 | Fiscal Year 2021 Fees | 3 |

1. Summer Semester 2020 Tuition & Fees

Recommended: That the Board approve the elimination of in-state differentials for undergraduate online tuition (e-Tuition) as of Summer semester 2020. All e-Tuition rates for undergraduate online tuition will now equal in-state tuition rates. These rates are reflected in Appendix IA (e-Tuition).

Further Recommended: That the Board eliminate all mandatory fees at every institution for Summer semester 2020, excluding the Technology Fee and Special Institutional Fee.

Further Recommended: That the Board eliminate all other fees at every institution for the Summer semester 2020, to include lab fees, course fees, and program fees.

Background: Rates for tuition and fees for Fall 2019, Spring 2020, and Summer 2020 semesters were set by the Board at its April 2019 meeting. Due to financial hardships caused by the COVID-19 public health emergency, the Board is taking action to immediately reduce costs to students during these unprecedented times.

Additional Information - Special Tuition for Distance Learning (e-Tuition):

At its April 2018 meeting, the Board of Regents took action to begin a three-year phase out of the undergraduate e-Tuition differential. The recommended action accelerates this phase-out to begin Summer semester 2020. Georgia residents taking courses online will no longer pay an e-Tuition with a differential above the face-to-face rate. Non-resident students taking courses online will pay no higher than the tuition rate paid in Spring 2020.

Additional Information – Executive and Professional Programs:

Certain executive and professional graduate programs assess tuition at rates to include items in addition to regular instruction. These rates may include professional development trips, external events, and other experiences supplemental to instruction. Institutions are provided the flexibility to reduce tuition levels for services or events not offered this summer.

2. Fiscal Year 2021 Tuition

Recommended: That the Board approve the undergraduate and graduate tuition rates for fiscal year 2021, which are the same as the rates for fiscal year 2020, to become effective Fall semester 2020. Recommended tuition rates appear in Appendix IB (Undergraduate Tuition) and Appendix IC (Graduate & Professional Programs Tuition).

Further Recommended: That the Board approve the e-Tuition rates for fiscal year 2021, which are the same rates approved for Summer semester 2020 and found in Appendix IA. These rates shall apply only to students taking 100% of their courses in an online format beginning Fall semester 2020.

Background: Maintaining affordability is one of the highest priorities of the Board of Regents and actions taken in recent years to keep tuition increases low or flat underscore this commitment. With this recommendation, the Board of Regents will have held tuition flat for three of the last five years. Tuition and fees in the University System of Georgia remain an excellent value for students. In the most recent data available from the Southern Regional Education Board (2018-2019), the USG again is the fourth lowest among SREB states for tuition and fees at four-year institutions and sixth lowest at two-year institutions. The Board’s action to not increase tuition in FY 2021 has further accentuated this priority.

3. Fiscal Year 2021 Mandatory & Elective Fees

Recommended: That the Board approve the proposed mandatory student fees for fiscal year 2021 for institutions of the University System of Georgia, to become effective Fall semester 2020. Recommended mandatory student fees appear in Appendix IIA.

Further Recommended: That the Board approve those elective fees requiring Board approval to remain at the same level as assessed in FY 2020. Institutions may reduce or eliminate these fees upon notification to the Office of Strategy & Fiscal Affairs.

Background: By policy, the Board of Regents approves all mandatory fees and certain elective fees and special charges. The major mandatory fees include intercollegiate athletic fees; student health service fees; student activity fees; parking and transportation fees; technology fees; and, in recent years, fees to support private funding of facilities such as recreation centers, parking decks, student centers and similar projects. The recommendations contained in Appendix IIA were developed following a review of institutional fee requests that considered, among other things, the current financial position of the programs and activities supported by fees. Each request was accompanied by documentation provided by the institution concerning the committee review process required by Board of Regents policy, which requires each fee and the budget it supports to be reviewed by a committee comprised of at least fifty percent students.

Three institutions have requested a net reduction to their mandatory fees. The net fee increases recommended all support Public-Private Venture facility projects, as describes above. Overall, 93% of mandatory fees remain unchanged. A summary of recommended fee changes is below.

Fee Increases & Decreases:

COMMITTEE ON ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

April 9, 2010

At its called meeting on April 9, 2020, the Committee on Academic Affairs approved:

- Three bachelor's degrees at Georgia Gwinnett College, Kennesaw State University, Georgia State University and one masters' degree at the University of Georgia.
- Establishment of Endowed positions at Georgia Institute of Technology and the University of Georgia.
- Named faculty at Augusta University, Georgia Institute of Technology, Kennesaw State University and the University of Georgia.

Mr. Chairman, this concludes our report, and I submit it to the Board for approval in the form of a motion with one revision to update the name of the Endowed position for the University of Georgia to the John H. "Johnny" Isakson Chair for Parkinson's Research instead of Fund.

6. Named/Endowed Faculty Positions	13

1. Establishment of a Bachelor of Science with a major in health sciences, Georgia Gwinnett College

Recommended: That the Board approve the request of President Jann L. Joseph that Georgia Gwinnett College (“GGC”) be authorized to establish a Bachelor of Science with a major in health science, effective April 14, 2020.

Need and Demand:

This new degree is specifically designed to provide alternate health care career options for the students who are ineligible for admission into the university’s nursing program. There are currently 1480 pre nursing students at Georgia Gwinnett College; of these only 60-64 nursing students are accepted into the nursing program at GGC each year. Historical data shows that these students leave GGC for other programs at institutions that offer allied health degrees.

As of 2019 Q4 total employment for healthcare support workers in Georgia is 2,598. Over the prior three years this occupation has shed 162 jobs and is expected to increase by 198 jobs over the next 7 years, or at an average rate of 1.1%. Currently the Georgia locations with the greatest employment in this career option are Augusta, Columbus, Americus and Athens.¹

National trends indicate an increased need in graduates with health science degrees. The Health Resource and Service Administration (2018) Allied Health Workforce Projections 2016-2030: Community Health Workers indicate a need for graduates with knowledge and skills in public health and patient navigation to work in the community. A 14% increase in these jobs for adult populations alone is projected. Community health workers (CHWs) primarily work in underserved communities and are a resource to help advance goals of improved care coordination, health equity, and population health. They assist individuals and communities by working in a broad range of capacities that include care coordination, case management, health coaching, health education, health assessment and screening, resource linking, medication management, remote care, patient follow-up, and social and literacy support. Other names for CHWs include health advocates, lay health educators, community outreach workers, health coaches, and patient navigators.

Program Summary:

The program is 120 credit hours in length and will be delivered face to face with some online courses making up the curriculum. There are two proposed tracks, one in community health and the second in patient navigation. No new faculty are requested, existing faculty will be re-assigned over three years to cover new course delivery. No physical renovations will be needed, existing space is adequate.

Assessment

The Office of Academic Affairs will work with the institution to measure the success and continued effectiveness of the proposed program. The review is in concert with the institution's schedule of comprehensive program reviews.

2. Establishment of a Bachelor of Science with a major in integrated health, Kennesaw State University

Recommended: That the Board approve the request of President Pamela S. Whitten that Kennesaw State University be authorized to establish a Bachelor of Science with a major in integrated health, effective April 14, 2020.

Need and Demand: The DOL anticipates a continued national demand for healthcare services and related health occupations between 2016-2026. Healthcare employment is projected to grow 18 percent, compared to the 6 percent average for all other occupations. During this timeframe, healthcare services and related health occupations will account for sixteen of the thirty fastest growing occupations nationwide. Between 2010 and 2020, healthcare occupations will increase from 10.1 million to 13.1 million jobs nationwide. A bachelor's degree is required for 24 percent of all healthcare jobs. This high demand for postsecondary education and training in healthcare is second only to STEM and education occupations.

The WellStar School of Nursing typically has over 1,000 applicants each year for the 256 openings in the program. Over 30 percent of these students who do not get admitted to the nursing program leave KSU by transfer or withdraw totally from the USG. Many of these high-quality students would prefer to stay at KSU and continue to pursue a health-related career.

Currently, four USG institutions offer degree programs in the health sciences (CIP Codes: 51000001/51999901). Three of the four institutions have similar programs of study (Clayton State, Georgia Southern & Coastal College of Georgia). Of these three programs, two have established degree programs in the last five years. Although the enrollment numbers in the Health Science majors at each of these institutions are rapidly growing, it is too soon to evaluate graduation data. For example, Clayton State University implemented a B.S. in Health Science in 2016. In three years, the program now enrolls over 1,000 majors. However, the first graduating class did not matriculate until 2017. None of the current Health Science programs are convenient to prospective students in the Northwest Georgia region.

Program Summary: The proposed IHS major provides an interdisciplinary curriculum that establishes a strong core knowledge of health and disease prevention, along with quality delivery and oversight of health services. The program is 120 credit hours in length. A new faculty will be hired during year 1 of the program. Two additional faculty will be re-assigned to teach new courses within the program. There are no requirements for new or renovated space. The B.S. in Integrated Health Science is an "open-degree" undergraduate program. This designation means that students will be able to declare the degree upon matriculation to the university. Full or part time study is offered. Classes will be delivered face to face and hybrid.

Assessment

The Office of Academic Affairs will work with the institution to measure the success and continued effectiveness of the proposed program. The review is in concert with the institution's schedule of comprehensive program reviews.

3. Establishment of a Bachelor of Science in Data Science, Georgia State University

Recommended: That the Board approve the request of President Mark B. Becker that Georgia State University (“GSU”) be authorized to establish a Bachelor of Science in Data Science, effective April 14, 2020.

Need and Demand: Georgia State University, in response to needs of the Atlanta Metro business and governmental agencies for well-trained data scientists, proposes a Bachelor of Science degree in Data Science. The degree will provide opportunities for students whose interests and career goals fall in the intersection of computing and other traditional disciplines such as the sciences, law, or even humanities. In addition to the opportunities represented by formal classroom teaching, the research strengths of the many accomplished faculty in the department will provide great opportunities for advanced undergraduate students to obtain hands-on research experience in data science and its applications in other disciplines. According to a ranking at glassdoor.com (see 50 Best Jobs in America, https://www.glassdoor.com/List/Best-Jobs-in-America-LST_KQ0.20.htm), Data Scientist and Data Engineer careers are the top 1 and top 3 best jobs in the United States, respectively, and have remained at the top for the past few years.

Within the University System of Georgia, University of Georgia (UGA) Departments of Statistics and Computer Science offers a Bachelor of Science degree in Data Science program. The launch of the UGA’s program speaks to the importance of undergraduate-level training in Data Science. Nevertheless, the program is not sufficient to meet the increasing demand of undergraduate Data Science education, especially for students in the Atlanta metropolitan area.

Program Summary:

The proposed degree will provide students with a strong foundation in the mathematics and basic sciences, fundamental computer programming and algorithmic skills, strong foundations in Data Science fundamentals and methodologies, and a capstone experience.
