

Semester Enrollment Report

Definition of Tables and Columns

Last Update: August 2022

This document provides definitions of the tables and columns displayed in the Semester Enrollment Report (SER). The SER is produced each semester using mid-term data from the Academic Data Collection (ADC). For a full list of data elements collected during ADC see the document “ADC Data Element Dictionary with Valid Values” at https://www.usg.edu/research/reporting_resources.

Many of the variables in the SER are derived from other variables; see the “ADC Functional and Technical Definition of Derived Variables” document at https://www.usg.edu/research/reporting_resources for more detailed information on definitions.

Note: The SER includes all currently enrolled students, where Enrollment Status Code is equal to HEADCNTY.*

Table 7: Selected Student Characteristics

Headcount Enrollment, Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) Enrollment, and Full Time Status – Table 1

Column 1 Headcount Enrollment

The number of students currently enrolled this term at each institution. The Sector and System totals are the sum of the institutional enrollments. The System enrollment may contain duplicates if a student is concurrently enrolled at more than one institution.

Column 2 Enrollment Same Term Last Year

The number of all students who were enrolled this same term of the previous fiscal year.

Column 3 Percent Change in Enrollment

The percent change in enrollment between this term (in Column 1) and the same term in the previous year (Column 2).

Column 4 FTE Enrollment

The new definition to be used beginning with the Summer 2003 SER is as follows:

Undergraduate FTE

Count each full-time student as 1 (where full-time is defined as attempting 12 or more hours, with Student Level less than 60); count all hours enrolled for the remaining undergraduates and divide those hours by 12; add the two numbers together.

Graduate and Professional FTE

Count each full-time student as 1 (where full-time is defined as attempting 9 or more hours, with Student Level 60 or greater); count all hours enrolled for the remaining graduate and professional students and divide those hours by 9; add the two numbers together.

Add Undergraduate FTE and Graduate/Professional FTE to get the total FTE.

Note: Previous definition used between Summer 2002 and Spring 2003: FTE enrollment is the sum of hours enrolled by undergraduates for the current term divided by 15 plus the sum of hours enrolled by graduate and professional students for the current term divided by 12.

Note: For Sector totals, prior to Summer 2009, an individual calculation was used for Sector and System totals. However, beginning Summer 2009, the institution totals were summed up into a Sector total and the sector totals summed to the System total. We will continue to use the current method of summation so the sector totals and system totals will add up to the individual FTE numbers for each school.

Note: Starting with the Summer 2020 SER, FTE numbers will be rounded rather than truncated.

Column 5 FTE Same Term Last Year

The sum of undergraduate FTE enrollment for the same term the previous fiscal year plus the sum of graduate FTE enrollment for the same term the previous fiscal year.

Column 6 Percent Change in FTE

The percent change in FTE enrollment from last year to this year comparing Column 4 to Column 5.

Column 7 Percent Full-Time Enrollment

The percentage of students (Column 1) that are considered full-time students. Full-time status is defined at the undergraduate level (*Student Level*¹ less than 60) as being enrolled for 12 or more semester hours. It is calculated by dividing the number of full-time students with a Student Level less than than 60 by the total number of enrolled students with a Student Level less than than 60. At the graduate/professional level (Student Level 60 or higher), full-time is defined as being enrolled for 9 or more semester hours. The percentage of full-time undergraduates is added to the percentage of full-time graduate and professional students.

¹ In this document, items that are italicized and capitalized indicate reference to a specific data element defined in the Academic Data Collection Data Element Dictionary, found here: https://www.usg.edu/research/reporting_resources

Beginning Freshmen includes the number of first-time, degree-seeking students (Degree Level Code not equal to 'N' or 'X') with Student Level 10, 20, 30, or 40 that do not have valid transfer college records reported. It also includes first-time degree-seeking students with Student Level 10, 20, 30, 40 who have valid transfer college records, if the last transfer record has a begin date that is less than or equal to the high school graduation date. The latter stipulation allows former dual enrollment students to be counted as Beginning Freshmen.
