

Task Force on Evaluation of Expected Outcomes for Programs & Services

Focused on: conducting comprehensive program review of degree programs and general education; articulating, assessing, and improving expected outcomes for the institution's programs and support services, including its research and public service missions (CS 3.3.1.1-5); best practices; successful models, regional and national developments, etc.