Affordable Care Act 2018 Excise Tax

Imposes a 40% excise tax, starting in 2018, on the portion of health plan premiums that exceed $10,200 for single coverage and $27,500 for family coverage

What's important to know?

- TRSC has already taken steps to avoid the tax in early years
- Future recommendations will focus on plan design changes to avoid tax in later years
- Monitoring IRS guidance

2016 Medicare Eligible Retiree Plan

- Primary Coverage (80%) - Medicare Parts A & B
- Supplemental Coverage (20%) - Purchased from the Aon Retiree Healthcare Exchange, a private retiree health exchange

USG will assist retirees in selecting and paying for their Supplemental Coverage (20%)

Medicare Eligible Retirees Selecting and Paying for Coverage

- Retiree
  - Meets with Aon Benefit Advisor to select best coverage
  - Selects coverage from Aon Retiree Health Exchange
  - Pays premiums for coverage each month
- University System of Georgia
  - Provide funds towards premiums
  - Funds from USG are deposited into a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA)
  - Retiree uses money from HRA to reimburse themselves for a portion of the premiums and/or out-of-pocket healthcare costs

Medicare Eligible Retirees USG Funds to HRA

- Funding recommendation based on:
  - Retiree's spend for healthcare coverage relatively the same for 2016
  - No increase in BOR cost for retiree healthcare in 2016; 2015 spend at $43.3M
- USG Funds to HRA
  - $2,736 annual amount/$228 monthly

Medical Eligible Retirees

What this means for Retirees

- Retirees will pay a similar premium in 2016 as they did in 2015
- Coverage levels are comparable to the USG plan
