

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES
REGENTS ACADEMIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE

OCTOBER 24, 2008, 10 A.M.
GEORGIA CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION
MACON, GA

The Regents Academic Advisory Committee on Family and Consumer Sciences met on October 24, 2008 at the Georgia Cattlemen's building at 100 Cattlemen's Drive, Macon, GA. Dr. Darby Sewell conducted the meeting. Representatives from the following institutions were present: Dr. Darby Sewell, Abraham Baldwin College; Dr. Tim Marshall, Abraham Baldwin College; Dr. Laura Jolly, University of Georgia; Dr. Jan Hathcote, University of Georgia; Dr. Roger Hill, University of Georgia; Dr. Virginia Richards, Georgia Southern University; Dr. Judy Monsaas, University System of Georgia; and Dr. Linda D. Johnson, Fort Valley State University. The institution representatives were welcomed and given packets of information from the Georgia Cattlemen's Association.

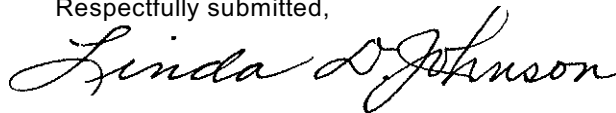

Dr. Monsaas, USG Liaison gave updates from the Board of Regents. Dr. Monsaas gave each participant a handout describing the Roles and Responsibilities of the Advisory Committee chair, members and liaison. Additionally, information was given on the FY10 Budget plans and the proposal for Core Curriculum Revision.

Dr. Sewell reviewed the names and contact information of institutions with family and consumer sciences courses and/or curriculums. Transfer issues and other issues pertaining to FCS were discussed. Transfer Articulation issues affecting all institutions represented at this meeting was discussed. Dr. Sewell had prepared a handout for this discussion. A review of Area F compliance was discussed as well as family and consumer sciences education.

Dr. Linda D. Johnson is to serve as chair-elect and secretary for 2008-2009.

The committee was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Linda D. Johnson".

Linda D. Johnson, PhD
Family and Consumer Sciences